

DAN: Hello listeners! James has to make another apology!

BEN: And if you're wondering why the intro to the show was so short, it's because James has to make a very long apology that will take up all the running time.

JAMES: Sorry egg, for eating what may have been a close or distant family member.

DOMINANT EGG: Not good enough.

JAMES: I could have eaten one of your enemies too...

DE: Such as?

JAMES: Your rival The Commanding Egg?

DE: Never heard of him.

JAMES: The Bossy Egg?

DE: Try again.

JAMES: Power Egg?

DE: And again.

JAMES: Wow that's three eggs you're not enemies with? I'm impressed!

DAN: How many enemies do you have then, James?

JAMES: I don't have Facebook, I use another site made for people like me. You don't get friends listed, you have all your foes.

DAN: And how many is that?

JAMES: I've reached the limit of 5,000.

BEN: Wow. What's the site called?

JAMES: Do you know what the opposite of a face is?

BEN: No...

JAMES: Right, no one does, which is why it was so difficult naming the site. And what the hell is the opposite of a book? In the end someone thought 'Foot Film' was a good name.

BEN: So it's not a site about people filming their feet?

JAMES: No...

BEN: So it's not a fetish site?

JAMES: Dear God no. People don't think I'm the most popular member of a foot fetish site, do they??

DAN: I think they do now, yes.

Egg: Hahahaha!

JAMES: Why are you picking on me? Ben and Dan eat eggs, too! Not necessarily dominant eggs, fine, but eggs all the same!

DAN: Egg, you have to understand...

DE: What???

DAN: In today's world it's almost impossible NOT to eat eggs, they're in pretty much everything! It's like telling someone not to breathe air!

JAMES: THAT'S what I should have said!

DE: Am I supposed to feel better now?

JAMES: It gets worse, Ben and Dan eat chickens!

DE: Is that true?

...

DE: I'll take that as a yes, then.

JAMES: Explain how it's impossible not to eat chicken...

...

JAMES: You can't? I would have said it's because it tastes really good.

DE: This is NOT ok.

JAMES: You're not 100% innocent either, Egg. My mum was so traumatised by a chicken when she got pecked by one, she refused to eat chicken from that point onwards!

DE: And how is that supposed to make me feel bad?

JAMES: As I said, chicken tastes really good...

DE: I expect this kind of behaviour from James, but not you and Ben, Dan.

DAN: I've kept a chicken as a pet once. We got on great. I even got it to peck

James's mum.

JAMES: No way...

DAN: What?

JAMES: My arch nemesis. We finally meet. If only I was allowed to add another enemy on Foot Shoe.

DAN: You said the said the site was called Foot Film...

JAMES: That's what I said.

DAN: No, you just said Foot Shoe.

JAMES: No I didn't.

DAN: There is no Foot Film social media site is there? Just a Foot Film erotic page made especially for people like you. You've just been watching straaaange videos and don't know how to cover your tracks properly. Instead you made up some weird, rushed and desperate lie.

JAMES: No...

DAN: Prove it.

JAMES: I'd let you look at my internet search history, but you'd be offended.

DAN: And why is that?

JAMES: Errrrr...

DAN: Go on.

JAMES: To be honest?

DAN: Yes?

JAMES: Well here are a few examples: Why is Dan a prick? Why does Dan suck? Why...

DAN: Ok, I get the message.

DE: Hit James, Dan! He deserves it!

JAMES: Ow!

DE: Great! Now hit Dan and Ben, James!

DAN: Ow!

DE: And Ben!

DAN: Ow!

BEN: I understand how upset you are, but you would eat people if you could! You know how closely related birds and dinosaurs are don't you?

DE: You're sounding just like James...

JAMES: I hate to say this, but a dinosaur has never eaten a man. You do know that don't you?

BEN: Oh, so you're saying if a dinosaur was here right now, it wouldn't eat us for ethical reasons?

JAMES: You can't prove it can you?

BEN: So dinosaurs ate lizards and mammals but wouldn't eat people?

DE: Yes.

DAN: That can't be true.

DE: At very least, dinosaurs wouldn't put people into a cake.

BEN: Because they couldn't!

DE: Right. Because it's morally wrong.

BEN: Because they wouldn't have the intelligence!

DE: Oh so eggs and chickens etc. are stupid as well as murderers?

JAMES: I'd apologise, Ben.

DE: I'm talking to you right now, aren't I? Am I stupid?

JAMES: Stupid for trusting Ben and Dan...

DAN: Egg, you have to understand that you're one of a kind. That's why you've starred in films and all that stuff. Brilliant films. Amazing films. Unique. I don't mean to sound offensive, but I'm sure most eggs wouldn't even noticed if they got eaten...

ED: How slow do you think eggs are exactly?!

DAN: I'm just saying most eggs aren't self-aware!

ED: That's the same thing!

DAN: No one in their right mind would EVER eat a talking egg, honestly! No one knows how you do it!

ED: Oh am I supposed to be flattered? I can talk, fantastic! Now let me eat your friends!

DAN: It's not like that!

ED: What's it like then?

JAMES: It is a bit like that, isn't it Dan?

DAN: No!

JAMES: I'LL reason with him. Egg, say you had the nicest meal ever in front of it, what we humans call 'Chicken Tikka Masala'. As it tastes SO good, would you really mind if it was unethical? That's a genuine question.

DAN: Oh God.

DE: Excuse me?

JAMES: I'm just saying, if you've ever eaten curry, you'd understand. It's like listening to death metal. In theory it should just sound like aural torture, maybe even something comical, but actually lots of people like it. In theory, eating eggs and chickens sounds horrible, but KFC, Nando's, and Popeye's just make life that little bit better. Or quite a lot better. :)

DE: I'm going to kill you.

BEN: Well would you look at that, we're all out of time. We're going to have to end on a cliff hanger - will The Dominant Egg kill James or not??

JAMES: Nope.

DE: Arrrgh...
