BEN: Well, well, well. We have something truly special today, don't we, Dan?

DAN: Can't wait!

BEN: So James, last podcast you promised you'll go insane. How are you feeling?

JAMES: A bit edgy…

BEN: It looks like there's something you need to get off your chest…

JAMES: Yes, very much so. First up, I would like to apologise for starting World War 2…

BEN: Huh?

DAN: That was you??

JAMES: How can you not know? What kind of clown are you?

DAN: Of course. I'm sorry. Please continue.

BEN: No wait. How can you start something that happened before you were born?

JAMES: That's what I've been thinking about since last podcast. You see, you know Doctor Who?…

BEN: Yes?

JAMES: Well there you go.

DAN: What's that supposed to mean?

JAMES: Doctor Who.

BEN: What about him?

JAMES: Well he can time travel, can't he?

BEN: Are YOU Doctor Who??

JAMES: What?? No!

DAN: Oh. Never mind.

JAMES: BUT, I copied his technique.

DAN: Which was?

JAMES: It's hard to explain.

BEN: Ok. So why did you start the war?

JAMES: It was an accident. I entered a red phone box, and before you know it… Everything's changed… Everything went to crap, quite frankly.

BEN: James, what we're trying to work out is how can one man change the course of history so much? This is very serious.

JAMES: I know it is!

BEN: Please explain…

JAMES: You know how cats are telepathic? It's like that. I telepathically started the war by mistake when I made a phone call…

DAN: Ahhh. Of course!

BEN: James, I should report you to the police…

DAN: You think you know someone…

JAMES: But it all worked out in the end, right?

DAN: Even so, countless people died!

JAMES: I'm sorry!

BEN: What else are you responsible for??

JAMES: I started World War 1, too.

BEN: Not ANOTHER war?

DAN: James, have you actually done anything good?

JAMES: I invented penicillin.

DAN: For all the people you wounded?

JAMES: That was at least something.

DAN: If you really want to put things right, why not undo the wars, right now?

JAMES: I could do. But what if I do so and everything changes? Ever heard of the butterfly effect? Even tiny actions can have huge consequences…

BEN: It's the right thing to do.

JAMES: Ok. I've telepathically undone the wars…

BEN: James!

JAMES: What??

BEN: You're starting to disappear!

JAMES: I KNEW this would happen!!

DAN: Again, you did the right thing…

BEN: He's gone…

DAN: I'm really going to miss him…

JAMES: Ooooooooo…..

DAN: What was that? Is there a ghost in here?

BEN: I think we're being haunted…

JAMES: Oooooo….

BEN: This is the scariest thing to happen to anyone since… well not World War One, as there hasn't been a world war, yet. The scariest thing to happen since…

DAN: Since the beginning of time…

JAMES: Yes! I mean ooooooooooooo.

DAN: I think to calm the ghost down, we should welcome it and give it a nice warm cup of coffee…

BEN: Great idea.

JAMES: No!! Back off!

DAN: The ghost will go insane?

JAMES: How did you know??

DAN: Never mind. Hey, Ben?

BEN: What?

DAN: Did you hear about that ghost that's been haunting this station recently?

BEN: Yeah?

DAN: Turns out he's an asshole AND he started all diseases! Coronavirus, too. That's going to tick a lot of people off.

JAMES: Not again!

BEN: How did he do that?

DAN: I don't know. But people are getting angry!

BEN: I bet!

JAMES: Argh!

DAN: You can understand why, though. I mean… fancy causing ALL disease. And lockdown? That's been driving people crazy for a LONG time. There's already talk of a full blown riot. I can sense it.

BEN: But how are people supposed to get vengeance on a ghost you can't even see?

DAN: The rioters will be summoning the Wooble Dooble…

BEN: The Wooble Dooble? That's the dumbest thing I've heard in my life.

DAN: (Whispering) Just go with it…

BEN: Ok. What's the Wooble Dooble?

DAN: An unstoppable ghost destroyer!

JAMES: (Expletive!)

DAN: Hey… Did you hear that?

BEN: What?

DAN: I think the Wooble Dooble is here, now… I can sense him…

BEN: Yes! Me too…

DAN: I can feel him possessing me! He's making me speak…

JAMES: Oh my God!

DAN: Where's the ghost of James? He's gonna die!

(Thudding sound)

DAN: James just punched me in the face!

BEN: Jeez! That was quite a blow!

DAN: I'm bleeding!

BEN: You might want to get that looked at…

DAN: OW!

BEN: Not sure why James is hiding in the corner if we're not supposed to be able to see him…

(A phone rings)

BEN: I'll answer that…

DAN: Arrrrgh!

CALLER: Hello? I'm really confused. I've heard of World War 1 AND 2. Am I crazy?

BEN: I think things have gone too far…

DAN: No! This is the funniest day of my life!

CALLER: Personally I heard diabetes was caused by too much sugar. I'm not sure how you can blame the ghost of James for THAT…

DAN: Lies spread by the media.

CALLER: Oh.

DAN: Caller, what do you think should be done about James?

CALLER: I think we should study him so we can cure all of the diseases he's been spreading. Of course I feel like a fool for studying medicine at university for 3 years, only to find out the course was a load of rubbish, but at the same time I'm excited. I think James has the answer to make the world a safer place! And killing hundreds of millions of people? Everyone makes mistakes. Sorry, but I started the hundred years war. At least James's ones were over relatively quickly.

JAMES: Thanks, man.

BEN: Another crazy person…

DAN: Actually I think most of our audience are crazy. We really can blame THAT on James.

BEN: Listeners are listeners.

DAN: I guess. Well thanks for calling. You weren't as entertaining as I'd hoped, but callers are callers as Ben would say. He just did in fact.

BEN: Well that's all we have time for. Hope this show has been entertaining…

JAMES: No!

BEN: Byeeee!

DAN: (Annoyed) Bye!
