

Hi, I'm James! (James the excellent INFp)

Hi, James, I'm Sam! Welcome to the Socionics chatroom! (Super Sam)

Hello, James! My name is Derek, are you new to Socionics? (Intellectual Derek)

Not really, I've been visiting this site for a few months, now... (James)

Great! Then maybe you'd like to take part in today's discussion? (Sam)

What's that? (James)

If God had a personality type, what would that be? (Sam)

Wow, that's a tough one... (James)

No, stop! Ignore James, he's going to say INFp, I know he is! He's been spamming other psych websites! (Ben the Biscuit)

Is that true, James? (Derek)

I was just going to say God would be the best type, and the best type is INFp... (James)

I knew it! I knew it! (Ben)

Calm down. I hate to change the subject, but I have a question... (James)

Ok... (Derek)

What is it about INFps that makes them so awesome? Is it one specific trait or is it a range of factors? (James)

I'm an INFp and I find what you said very offensive. All types are equal. (Karaoke Party)

You wish you were an INFp. (James)

I used to be happy with my type. Now I'm embarrassed. (KP)

Anyway, what type is God? (Sam)

I think God would be INDEPENDENT as his vision is the very best; he would be NORWEGIAN because it's one of the nicest places to live; he would also be part FRENCH because France is near to England, and England is great; and he would be POOR because he doesn't believe in material possessions. (James)

Do you even know what INFp means? (Sam)

What's it mean? (James)

It doesn't mean Independent, Norwegian, French, Poor, it means Introverted, iNtuitive, Feeling, Perceiving. (Sam)

Introverted, Intuitive, Feeling and Perceiving? What's that even mean? (James)

Ignore him! He's a troll! (Fish'n'Chips)

It's fairly straightforward, do you know what introverted means? (KP)

No... (James)

How do you know your type, then? (KP)

I took a test. I never read exotic words like introverted in it... (James)

I think God is a combination of all types. (Turtle Love)

That would be impossible... (James)

I hate to say this, but it would technically be impossible... (Sam)

Powned. (James)

Out of curiosity, do you know what your Enneagram type is? (Sam)

5w4. (James)

The intellectual? (Sam)

Yeah. (James)

I don't believe you. (Sam)

It's true. (James)

And do you know what level of mental health you are? (Sam)

I'd rather not talk about it... I've been worse, though. :) (James)

Do you host a podcast, James? (Ben)

Yeah! (James)

I knew it was you! You're a freak! (Ben)

No I'm not. (James)

Are you a pigeon? (Ben)

Yes. I peck the keyboard... (James)

Do you know what my type is, James? (Ben)

No... (James)

ESTp. We should be a perfect match for each other. (Ben)

Really? How about a hug? (James)

No! You're a moron! (Ben)

Wow. That's really depressing. (James)

Good... (Ben)

You don't really think you have the perfect personality, do you James? (Turtle Love)

France and Norway are nice countries... (James)

Argh! How can you even function in life?! (Sam)

Easy. I'm the best. (James)

You are not the best! >:( (Sam)

This is the exact reason I hate INFps! (The ESTj Master)

Bossy boots. (James)

Oh, you think ESTjs are bossy? (ESTj)

Sure do... (James)

Let's keep this forum polite... (Sam)

Considering INFps and ESTjs don't get along at all, I'd say James WAS actually being strangely polite...(Derek)

What's your type, Derek? (James)

ISTj :) (Derek)

You're an asshole, too. (James)

Do you have trust issues, or something? Technically speaking, we should get along... Btw, ISTjs are bossy too, but it's a different kind of bossiness. :D (Derek)

This whole psych 'science' is a load of crap. Who gets along with someone like him? (FnC)

Of course I have trust issues! My apparent best friend, Ben, refused a hug and called me a moron! (James)

And how would you hug me, exactly? (Ben)

Virtual hug! (James)

What's that? (Ben)

Screw you. (James)

Here's an interesting topic: What does everyone think the worst type is? (Sam)

INFps sound pretty bad... I admit it. (KP)

... ass. (James)

What? (KP)

INFps sound pretty bad... ass. (James)

And what do you do that's bad... ass? Other than peck people? (KP)

I was just about to say 'peck people' but you said it for me... (James)

Is this normal behaviour from an INFp, Sam? (KP)

No, it's not normal... (Sam)

Why is he acting like this?? (KP)

James? (Sam)

Like what? (James)

Calling yourself God and acting like a buffoon? It's very offensive to religious people. (Sam)

Bossy boots. (James)

It was Derek and the ESTj who are 'bossy'. It brings me great shame to say I'm an INFp, too. (Sam)

I don't have to take these insults, I'm going. (James)

Oh thank God. Now we can discuss God's type! (Sam)

A great topic! (Derek)

Who here thinks God is an introvert? (Sam)

I do. I think God is an INFp. The best type. (Dr. Fantastic)

You're James, aren't you? (Sam)

I'm sorry? (Dr. Fantastic)

I agree, Dr. Fantastic isn't James. Also, James is really cool. (Excellent Jim)

You're on two computers, aren't you? (Sam)

I confess. I have a PC and a laptop. Both are on. I'm really quick at logging in and out.
(James)

You're banned. :) (Sam)
