

My 'how good are you at driving' test was very easy to pass even though if you don't score the absolute maximum you immediately get reported to the police, and for that reason alone, it's not going to replace the standard test. So let's make a test that's a little harder, about how good you are at life in general. Some of the following questions SHOULD be easy for you, but others not so much! Are you a lawyer who can cook awesome curries? If so, wow! On the other hand, you're not the kind of person who... who... Let's find out!

1. A policeman knocks on your door and (rightly) accuses you of stealing your neighbour's favourite CD and sneezing on his window. How do you respond?
